

LOYOLA

Preparatory School

Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam

Violin Teacher (Peripatetic)

Loyola is a successful all boys' Catholic day school based in Buckhurst Hill, Essex.

Due to their current peripatetic Violin Teacher retiring after 30 years of service, Loyola Preparatory is seeking to appoint a talented, experienced and specialist peripatetic Violin Teacher to start in September 2018. The current violin teacher works between 1½-2 days at the school, depending on uptake and the school will be able to offer a degree of flexibility on days/ times for the successful candidate.

We are looking for someone who:

- Is able to teach pupils on a one-to-one basis from Y2 to Y6
- Supporting pupils up to grade 5 violin (or higher in some cases)
- Can organise grading through the associated music public exam boards
- Can provide a weekly lessons to the school 'string orchestra'
- Can adapt their teaching style to 'how boys learn best'
- Can commit to the school Catholic ethos

In return we can offer:

- A friendly and caring working environment
- A dedicated space for violin teaching
- Flexibility

Interested candidates would be very welcome to come and have an informal chat and tour of the school, experiencing first-hand its distinctive atmosphere and friendliness. Please contact the school office to arrange a suitable time/date to visit and or to request an application pack.

Loyola Preparatory School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service.

Post Commencing: September 2018
